The weekly average number at the Almshouse the last year was 134. The present number is 162; 75 males and 87 females. Of this number there are 6 blind, 14 insane, or partially insane, 17 idiots and 28 children under 10 years of age. The inmates are composed of persons from almost every nation, and require the constant care and attention of Mr. and Mrs. Caswell who have had charge of the same as Superintendent and Matron for the last seven years, and in whom we desire to express our full confidence for the faithful discharge of the responsible duties devolving upon them.

The whole number of deaths in the institution during the past year, as will be seen by the accompanying tab fourteen.

It has been the aim of the Commissioners in all cases to properly care for and aid those in actual need of assistance. Those at the Almshouse have been at all times supplied with a plenty of good and wholesome food, comfortable beds and clothing, and with such care as necessary to make them comfortable, subject to only such restraints as have been deemed necessary for their own good and the proper management of the institution.

We have had a school a large part of the year, consisting of from fifteen to twenty-five children, taught by Miss Caswell, and Miss Gile. The progress in learning will compare very favorably with any of our district schools.

Religious services are held at the Almshouse each week the most part of the year on Sabbath afternoon, at which many clergymen of the county have kindly offered their services, for which we thank them, and hope in the future others may assist us in the same direction.

There is one point in which the Commissioners ask the co-operation of all overseers of the poor in the county, and that is in regard to transient paupers, a class of men mostly able bodied, that travel through the country and get their living from those towns they think the most liberal. Many of them have become almost regular boarders. This class of men should receive only bread and water and a bed of straw. If thus treated, in a short time they would find work and pay their bills, or shift to some other locality.

The expense of Paupers per week is larger than last year, owing to the expense of putting in new furnaces and the extra amount of interest charged to the expense of the farm.

The expense of repairs on furnace the last year has been about four hundred dollars, which is charged in the general expenses of the year instead of added to the cost of the farm.

Mr. Caswell during the past year has sold pigs, calves, lambs, produce, etc., from the farm to the amount of $697,38, which he has expended in supplies for the county house.

We are happy at all times as heretofore to receive visitors at the Almshouse. In every instance where they have made investigation they have expressed satisfaction at the result.

Trusting this report may satisfy all enquirers in regard to the operation of the institution, we respectfully submit it for your consideration.
